

Fund Update

The Fund returned -3.4% during April, resulting in a Net Asset Value (NAV) of $1.4060/unit and delivering a 36.9% annualised return since inception. Key drivers of the performance of the Underlying Fund were a 2.3% decline in the Sigma Healthcare share price and a 10.9% decline in the Ingenia Communities share price.

The S&P/ASX300 Accumulation Index declined 2.9% during the month as global markets experienced a volatile month in response to stronger than expected inflation data and an escalation of geopolitical tensions. April's CPI data indicated the pace of decline in inflation had slowed across major economies, strengthening the case for delaying rate cuts until year end or beyond.

Key investment update - GrainCorp

In April the Underlying Fund was pleased to disclose its fourth investment, having accumulated a 5.01% shareholding in GrainCorp over recent months. GrainCorp is the largest grain storage and handling business in East Coast Australia (ECA) and the number one edible oil processor and oilseed crusher across Australia and New Zealand.

The company generates average through-the-cycle EBITDA of $310m and has a strong balance sheet with core cash of c.$350m at the end of September 2023².

Why do we like GrainCorp?

- 1) We're attracted to GrainCorp's market-leading position in the east coast grain export supply chain, having historically maintained an average of +60% port terminal market share cross ECA states²;
- 2) GrainCorp holds significant net tangible assets which we consider to be worth materially in excess of the book value and the current share price; and
- 3) GrainCorp has significant optionality to leverage its unique footprint to play a critical role in the nascent biofuels refining supply chain (both biodiesel and sustainable aviation fuel) by capitalising on opportunities related to its proposed WA crushing facility and existing Agri-Energy business.

We believe equity markets are failing to appropriately value the critical port infrastructure under GrainCorp's control, and there may be opportunities to realise greater value from the infrastructure assets via increased utilisation.

The Underlying Fund looks forward to engaging constructively with the board and management of GrainCorp to help realise the significant embedded value in the company.
